Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to this week's Bulletin!

There are just a few short messages in this week's bulletin. I'd also like to draw everyone's attention to the diary dates, which include a number of important Christmas activities. For your information, we are currently planning to take your children to Theatre by the Lake in January to watch Beauty and the Beast.

Operation Encompass

Please find attached a letter which explains our participation in a new county-wide initiative, which has been launched by the local authority, the safeguarding board and Cumbria Police. It is important that this letter is read and understood by all parents and carers in school.

Fareshare

A big thank you to those parents and members of the public who have contributed generously to the fortnightly donations pot. We appreciate the effort of the volunteers who collect the order and the honesty of those who benefit.

After School Clubs

As the nights draw in, our indoor after school clubs have now been finalised for next term. It sees the return of some old favourites and an exciting new club!

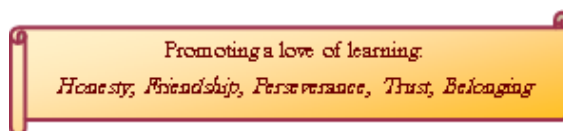

Monday – Christmas Crafts - a great opportunity to make decorations, bake and have festive fun.

Tuesday – Mindfulness Art and Craft with Busy Bee Yoga – Come along to make rain-sticks, dream catchers, garlands and so much more with our Yoga expert Leigh-ann.

Wednesday – Indoor Games – Bring along a favourite board game from home to enjoy with your friends.

Thursday – Film Club – returns in its regular slot for a comfy chilled out evening with popcorn and great movies.

Friday – Circus Skills – The return of our enormously popular club! A wonderful opportunity to learn circus skills with our wonderful trapeze artist Toni Spence.

Lost Property

George Wood has lost two new school jumpers! Please could the parents of Class 1 check the label in your child's jumper to ensure they've taken the correct jumper home. Thank you.
