Dear Parents,

Welcome to this week's Bulletin. We hope that all the Y5 and Y6 enjoyed their time at Hawes End.

Read All About It!

On Tuesday 20th March The Herald will be coming to talk to Class 2 about the work they have done on Plastic recycling. It will be a great opportunity for them to demonstrate all that they have learned.

Parents Evening

A reminder that Parents Evening is taking place on Wednesday 21st March. Allocated times are attached to this bulletin.

Community Lunch

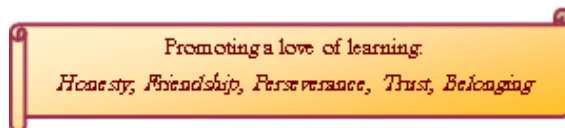

Our community lunch is happening this Thursday 22nd March. There will be a Decorated Egg Competition, which the children need to do at home and bring in to school if they want to take part. We also hope that you will all have a go at making a spectacular Easter Bonnet, for which we will be holding a Parade! Of course there will be Prizes!!

Pretty as a Picture!

On Friday 23rd March we are having our school photos taken. We all need to be smart and tidy that day – staff included!

Children's Author to visit school!!

We are very excited to welcome children's author Tom Palmer to School on Monday 26th March to talk about his books and work with the children. Friends of School have very kindly paid for a set of his books, which he will sign for us. If you want to look at his work, you can visit his website tompalmer.co.uk.

Day trip for Class 1

Class 1 are going on an exciting day out to Leighton Moss RSPB Bird Reserve on 29th March as part of their class topic. A separate letter is attached with this bulletin.

We are pleased to announce that the Dark Skies Art Event that was postponed due to the snow has been rescheduled. Class 2 will now be going to Asby School on Monday 16th April.

Tetrapak Requests

If you have any 1 litre Tetrapak cartons, like the type used for orange juice, please could you bring them into school on Monday? Class 1 would be very grateful as they need them for a class project.
