Friday Bulletin 18th March 2022

Dear Parents

Good morning from sunny Keswick. The children at Hawse End have missed their classmates but really enjoyed making new friends here this week. They've really engaged with all the activities from archery to ghyll-scrambling and will have many tales to tell on their return. Pictures are available to view on the school website.

As I'm sure you all know, the instances of COVID are rising sharply in our locality. Our school currently has 9 active cases which I discussed at length with Cumbria Public Health this week. The advice received was to remind everyone of the importance of washing hands regularly and remaining vigilant for any symptoms. Lateral Flow tests are still free until the end of this month and we recommend regular testing at present.

Speak Out Stay Safe

Our school will be participating in the "Speak Out, Stay Safe" on-line program, championed by the NSPCC. For information about the program, please read the attached letter.

Developing a World View – Monday 21st March

We are delighted to be welcoming Jane Yates from Cumbria SACRE on Monday afternoon. She will be working with the whole school and introducing the children to the idea of World Views. The aim is to help the children to think about things from the point of view of others, promoting ideas such as community and compassion which are central to our school philosophy. We will be working by zoom with children from other very small schools in the county.

Class 2 – Recorders

Class 2 have been in the privileged position of receiving specialist peripatetic music teaching every week from Carolyn Fyfe. Because of this, every child at Crosby leaves our school in Year 6 able to read musical notation which is something I'm very proud of. It's certainly not the standard in the vast majority of other schools across the country. In order to continue this musical tradition, we are asking parents of Class 2 students to continue their voluntary contributions of £10 per term towards the cost of this activity. We know this is excellent value and we thank you for showing your appreciation.

Art Workshop Class 2 – Wednesday 23rd March

Continuing her amazing work with our school, Andi Taylor will be with Class 2 finishing their special project on printing next week. We are very grateful for her inspirational contributions to our community.
