Opportunity for your child to WIN a year's worth of Razzamataz Sessions for FREE!

"Razzamataz Penrith is once again working with The Stage newspaper to offer youngsters the chance to win hundreds of pounds worth of training in dance, drama and singing.

They are looking for young people aged of 6-18 who love to Sing, Dance or Act – there is an exciting opportunity to enter The Stage Scholarship for a performing super star to win a year's FREE tuition at Razzamataz Theatre School Penrith with up to £675. All you need to do is film a short demo of no more than two minutes long showing a performance of either a musical theatre song and dance, commercial dance (hip hop or street), pop song, drama improvisation or scripted drama piece.

The Stage scholarship is just one of the ways in which Razzamataz helps support and nurture young talent. There are lots of plans for masterclasses with industry experts in theatre, musicals and TV as well as performing opportunities, when it is safe to do so.

To apply to The Stage scholarship, contact Razzamataz Penrith on penrith@razzamataz.co.uk or visit:

Musical fun from the Cumbria Music Hub

CHILDREN'S ORCHESTRA (Saturdays - 10:30-11:30am) Children's Orchestra is back! This fun and friendly group is open to anyone aged 7-15yrs old (and, if they'd like, their parents) who would like to play and practice their instruments with other children and families. This is not just for traditional orchestra instruments - all instruments are welcome. The sessions are led by Richard Evans and Joe Steels and are for young people of all abilities. Don't worry if you can't read music - most of the music can be learnt by ear. The sessions are at BlueJam Art Space on Saturdays during term time. If you know of any young people interested, please ask them to contact bluejamarts@gmail.com for more information and to book their place. Taking part costs £3-5 per session, but this is flexible depending on circumstances.
