Welcome to the January edition of the Link.

A very brief edition of the Link. I do not usually produce one for January but thought I'd give it a go this year. One item in particular would not wait until next month.

It has been kindly distributed by Darren and Sarah Rogers and Kitty Smith.

Their contact lists will not reach everybody, so please feel free to distribute this as you wish. If you are not on any of these lists and would like to be please email me at the email address above.

Many Thanks to all contributors and in particular the Rogers, Kitty, Vicky and Joan who regularly help make these lockdown Links varied and interesting.

Thank to Darren and Sarah Rogers and Kitty Smith for distributing the Link through their contact lists. Nick Thomas.

AND THE WINNER OF THE WELL FED XMAS CAKE WAS.....

Bob Kirk of Maulds Meaburn. He has tried for a number of years now, buying tickets for the Christmas cake or the Simnel cake at Easter and finally 2021 was his lucky year, so no wonder he had a big smile on his face when I gave him the good newsand his cake! He said that it had made his Christmas. There had to be a last minute change of plan re the draw, as school unexpectedly had to close on 13th December, due to COVID, following advice from Public Health England. All the Christmas planned activities had to be cancelled including the Community Lunch. Luckily Frankie Brennand was at home on the Wednesday and so she kindly picked out the winning envelope from the 150 in the draw.

I would like to thank everyone who supported the raffle which raised a total of £150. With the children missing their last week of the term it is hoped that this money will go towards something special being arranged to make up for those missed activities.

EDEN ANIMAL RESCUE CAN MAKE USE OF YOUR CHRISTMAS CARDS....PLEASE DON'T PUT THEM IN THE RECYCLING BAGS....

As twelfth night approaches, and you take down the Christmas cards you received, rather than putting them in the recycling bags, can you put them in a bag in the shelters at either Maulds Meaburn/Crosby Ravensworth. Don't forget to cut off any addresses etc but leave the front picture in tact. I will then collect them and take them to EAR.

One of the trustees there, remounts the picture on to new card and then adds a Christmas insert ready to resell next Christmas to raise funds for this local charity. For those of you who came along to the MMVI craft fair they were one of the best sellers, two cards in a pack for £1.

THANK YOU.....

Reagill Village Hall

We are ready to welcome overnight visitors to Reagill Village Hall. The building was formerly the oldest school in Westmorland (founded over 400 years ago) and it has undergone a gradual programme of modernisation. It is community run and holds a special place in the hearts of generations of villagers. We can now provide a fully fitted kitchen with a new cooker, new fridge and microwave. There are a variety of heating options including overhead electric heaters on a meter and two multi stove heaters. Extra logs can be purchased at £5 per bag. You can be assured of a really warm and cosy stay.

There's an inside disabled toilet and another one outside. We will have a 'power' shower fitted by early October. There are blow up beds for four adults and two children (one double, two twin and two children's) and two camp beds and a camping mat (thank you Andrew). Any additional guests may be able to bring sleeping mats and sleep on the floor. Bring your own bedding.

There is a yard outside and the garden area has now been strimmed. Reagill has no street lights, by choice and, on a clear night, the stars can be seen.

We charge £12 per night per person with a minimum charge of £25 for a night.

The hall is not available on Monday nights during term time and we have a regular booking in the middle of the day for outdoor enthusiasts to have their lunch from 16 October to 1 February. During the Christmas period there will be private bookings and a booking for the Reagill Christmas Party. Please contact me for availability. My email address is margaret.wilcox@talk21.com, phone 07804291972 (not good reception in Reagill) or 01931 715320, if no answer leave a message and I'll get back to you.
