- to make or defend legal claims (mainly reason d above) e.g., some special educational needs records which include details about the staff involved, and all accident records etc.

Collecting school workforce information

We collect personal information via job application forms and other pre-employment evidence. Most of the information we ask for is required by law or necessary so we can run the school effectively and some of it is voluntary. To comply with UK GDPR, if you have a choice about providing information, we will tell you when we ask for it. We will also tell you what to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Storing school workforce information

We hold school workforce data securely in line with the Information and Records Management Society (IRMS) Records Management Toolkit for Schools. Most data about staff is kept for between 6 months and 6 years after an event or the ending of a contract, although some is kept for much longer e.g., first aid and accident records that also involved children. Unsuccessful applicant data is kept for 6 months after the date of appointment.

Who we share school workforce information with and why

We do not share information about our workforce with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. The laws listed in this notice that require us to collect information also require us to share it. Data is transferred securely by hand delivery or registered post, via a government data transfer system like School to School, via a contractor's secure data sharing system like our online school trips safety system, and sometimes in other secure ways.

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring (see next section).

We also share school workforce information with:

- our payroll and pensions service provider to pay people;
- the Local Government Pension scheme (Your Pension Service) to manage pension contributions;
- HMRC for legal and tax reasons;
- organisations involved with our children like the local authority or other partner professionals who need the names, job titles, contact details and perhaps qualifications of our employees, the places we take children to on trips who might need more personal information like next of kin and medical needs, and workforce development organisations like training providers;
- Government departments like UK Health Security Agency, local authority public health, and District Council Environmental Health Departments to comply with the law and support public health action;
- Occupational Health and similar staff support services only with the consent of the individual.
