

Sentence Openers Game

Choose a topic to write about. Roll a die to determine what sentence opener you will use, then write a sentence using that type of opener. Keep rolling until you have a paragraph.

Use a conjunction

While Dad cooked, Sarah watched television.

Use a noun or adjective

Toys covered the floor.

Use a verb- an 'ing' clause

Watching her step, Lucy climbed over the rocks.

Use an adverb- an 'ed' or a 'ly' clause

Scared by the sound, Ben screamed.
Gently, she stroked the baby rabbit.

Use a feeling

Happily, she danced down the street.

Use a simile or metaphor

Like a swan, she glided across the room.
An elegant swan, she glided across the room.

Sentence Openers Game

Choose a topic to write about. Roll a die to determine what sentence opener you will use, then write a sentence using that type of opener. Keep rolling until you have a paragraph.

Use a conjunction

While Dad cooked, Sarah watched television.

Use a noun or adjective

Toys covered the floor.

Use a verb- an 'ing' clause

Watching her step, Lucy climbed over the rocks.

Use an adverb- an 'ed' or a 'ly' clause

Scared by the sound, Ben screamed.
Gently, she stroked the baby rabbit.

Use a feeling

Happily, she danced down the street.

Use a simile or metaphor

Like a swan, she glided across the room.
An elegant swan, she glided across the room.

Sentence Openers Game

Choose a topic to write about. Roll a die to determine what sentence opener you will use, then write a sentence using that type of opener. Keep rolling until you have a paragraph.

Use a conjunction

While Dad cooked, Sarah watched television.

Use a noun or adjective

Toys covered the floor.

Use a verb- an 'ing' clause

Watching her step, Lucy climbed over the rocks.

Use an adverb- an 'ed' or a 'ly' clause

Scared by the sound, Ben screamed.
Gently, she stroked the baby rabbit.

Use a feeling

Happily, she danced down the street.

Use a simile or metaphor

Like a swan, she glided across the room.
An elegant swan, she glided across the room.

Sentence Openers Game

Choose a topic to write about. Roll a die to determine what sentence opener you will use, then write a sentence using that type of opener. Keep rolling until you have a paragraph.

Use a conjunction

While Dad cooked, Sarah watched television.

Use a noun or adjective

Toys covered the floor.

Use a verb- an 'ing' clause

Watching her step, Lucy climbed over the rocks.

Use an adverb- an 'ed' or a 'ly' clause

Scared by the sound, Ben screamed.
Gently, she stroked the baby rabbit.

Use a feeling

Happily, she danced down the street.

Use a simile or metaphor

Like a swan, she glided across the room.
An elegant swan, she glided across the room.